

How do you know when your business is about to be breached?

We have a real plan for that.

Bad actors who plan to breach your business think they're invisible. They don't plan on being seen. Sussman security planning focuses on early detection and immediate action. Applying our real world security experience, we customize plans to prevent threats from disrupting your operations. We protect your Chief Security Officer from having to be a Chief Apology Officer.

Sussman offers:

- OT remediation and planning
- IT remediation and planning
- Cybersecurity planning
- Infrastructure security planning
- Remote security planning
- Environmental, social & governance (ESG)
